

Tainan Culture Day Tour

From Kaohsiung to Tainan

Tainan City- Chih-Kan Tower → Confucius Temple → An-Ping Fort → Sihcao-Ecological & Cultural Area

Time	Schedule (30 people can make one day tour)	Remark
09:00-10:00	Move to Tainan	Bus+ Tour guide
10:00-11:00	Chih-Kan Tower (With Guide) Cheng Cheng-kung (Koxinga) renamed this fort "Mansion Bestowed by Heaven" and made it his center of government after driving out the Dutch. It was abandoned at the time of Chu Yi-Kui's rebellion, and soon thereafter damaged by an earthquake. The external wall and the raised terrace were the only remaining parts. The Haishen Temple and the Wenchang Pavilion on the terrace were built during the late 1800's.
11:30	Confucius Temple
11:45	Famous Taiwan fruit store Lili Fruit Store from 1947 to now
12:30	Chou's restaurant There are many kinds of Taiwanese delicious food. In all kinds of diversified Tainan snacks, more than ten dishes in total are decorated to serving dish. Each person not only can eat food with own cutlery, but also can eat each dish with small amounts and fine diversification graciously.
13:45-16:00	An-Ping Fort (With guide) Taiwan city was also called "Imperial Castle", "Chih-Kan Fort" or "An-Ping Fort". Built in

1624 by the Dutch and completed in 1634. Its first name was "Orlande City" and later it was re-named as "Fort Zeelandia". Because Chinese people called the Dutch the Red-hair. Therefore they called this Fort as "Castle for the Red Hair". After WW II, it has been called "An-Ping Fort" until now.

Over three hundred years passed, today the oldest fort of Taiwan has left us remains of the semi-circular forts, remains of the city wall, watchtower, exhibition and the park for the heritage wall for us.

Sihcao-Ecological & Cultural Area (With guide)

16:30-17:30

19:00

Back to Hotel

Bus

How much does it cost?

* 60 USD per person for a group of 30 people or more.

* The payment for a group of 6 people should be further discussed.

Including : Bus/ English Guide/ Insurance/ Lunch/ All ticket fee